

Environmental Policy

FSR Group Services specialise in delivering high level security services to our clients. We have a wide variety of clients in various sectors including construction, healthcare, food production, banking, retail, education, defence and aged care. We pride ourselves on maintaining the highest standards and protecting the environment in all situations where we can exert control.

FSR Group Services has implemented a robust Environmental Management System (EMS) that provides a systematic and documented approach to Environmental protection and sustainability matters. The EMS conforms to ISO 14001:2015 and is third party audited and certified to ensure we are meeting the highest levels of compliance.

FSR Group Services is committed to:

- Fulfilling legal requirements and compliance obligations relevant to Environmental Protection and the Environmental Management System (EMS)
- Continual improvement of the EMS to enhance environmental performance
- Setting and monitoring key Environmental objectives and targets
- Sustainable resource usage
- Protection of biodiversity and ecosystems
- Climate change mitigation and adaptation
- Protecting the Environment, including prevention of pollution and other specific commitment(s) relevant to our operations.

FSR Group Services is devoted to reducing our impact on the environment and doing our part to protect the environments in which we operate.
